Lick Creek Band to Perform in Orange County

Band entertains the community with its extraordinary stylings

ORANGE COUNTY, Ind. – Blending vocals, guitar and bass, the Lick Creek Band has been described as “eclectic acoustic” by rendering rock, jazz, bluegrass and contemporary music into its back porch stylings. Regardless of the genre, audiences can hear the tightly woven harmonies that reflect the musical connection shared by good friends.

“We’re fun to watch because we’re having fun ourselves,” said band member Alice Wootton. “The audience does not hear the same music throughout our concerts. One song may be jazz, the next may be bluegrass, and the next may be pop.”

Tourists and area residents can listen to this extraordinary band at local establishments within Orange County. The band’s latest performance was held at the HomeGrown Lawn Chair Concert Series held on the Orange County Courthouse Square. This series showcases the area’s extraordinary musicians with a wide range of musical genres. Despite the rain, the Lick Creek Band attracted 90 people and raised $136 for the Orange County HomeGrown organization.

Its next stop is scheduled for June 3 at the Beechwood Inn Dinner and Guest House located in French Lick. Built in 1915, this mansion has an excellent restaurant within its elegant surroundings. A talented and creative staff of chefs prepares exceptional cuisine. Among the rich and famous who have mingled at this mansion are composer Irving Berlin, fighter/boxer Joe Louis and public enemy Al Capone. Those interested should call (812) 936 – 9012 or visit the restaurants page on www.orangecounty.travel for more information.

Tourists and community members are able to see the Lick Creek Band again June 9 at the Lotus Dickey Festival. This compelling festival is held June 9 to 11 on the Southside of the Orange County Courthouse Square. Plan to bring a lawn chair to sit back and listen to this weekend full of great free music.

Orange County performances of the Lick Creek Band can be found on the www.orangecounty.travel events page. For more information about the band, visit its website at www.lickcreekband.com.
