2006 Summer Concert Series in Orleans Park Kicks Off

ORLEANS -- The Orleans Chamber of Commerce hosted the first of the 2006 Orange County REMC annual Summer Concert in the Park series at historic Congress Square (town park) June 23. The special performance was by Wapituli, always a crowd pleaser, entertained concert goers with hits from the 50's-60's.

The popular Orleans Concert in the Park series, now in its sixth year, is simply an effort to by the Orleans Chamber, its community partners like Orange County REMC, to return various musical and other special events to downtown Orleans.

"Our concerts this year are once again geared to kindle the flames of patriotism, bring the local community together and bolster some real old fashion community spirit and pride," notes intern Orleans Chamer Executive Director Robert F. Henderson.

This is a chance for fans of live music to bring their friends and families to enjoy the historic town park square grounds and enjoy a full evening of entertainment. The public is welcome to attend and encouraged to bring their lawn chairs or blankets, as seating is limited.

Concert organizers encourage concert goers to come early and visit one of the town's various local eateries in and around the square before the concert.
