

For Immediate Release
July 19, 2007

Travelocity and IgoUgo Name French Lick Resort Casino a Top Insider Spot for Indiana in its 2007 Edition of Local Secrets, Big Finds

Selected from more than 10,000 Travelocity members entries, French Lick Resort Casino made the French Lick Resort Casino made the travel company's list of favorite local finds

FRENCH LICK, Ind. – The votes are in! Travelocity and IgoUgo's Local Secrets, Big Finds® revealed French Lick Resort Casino as one of the top local favorites in Indiana. More than 10,000 nominations poured in from Travelocity members around North America, challenging Travelocity's editorial team to search for the best of the best local finds in each state.

Local Secrets, Big Finds is a comprehensive list of unique places worth discovering, this online collection showcases hidden gems across the country that tourists often overlook but are the very places where the locals go.

"Our expansive collection of local secrets is one of the most valuable tools for travelers in search of authentic local flair or unique charm," Amy Ziff, Travelocity editor-at-large, said, adding that both locals and visitors can use the list to find wonders in their hometown or vacation destination. "The list has been created by travelers for travelers, and we are proud to have selected French Lick Resort Casino as one of our big finds for 2007."

French Lick Resort Casino is the culmination of the largest historic restoration project in the history of Indiana and one of the largest private historic restoration projects in the US.

The West Baden Springs Hotel, dubbed "The Eighth Wonder of the World" when it first opened in 1902, is the newest addition to the grand resort. This once abandoned treasure has been fully restored and is thriving, 75 years after it last served as a hotel.

The destination also boasts the meticulously restored French Lick Springs Hotel, an events center that contains just under 40,000 square feet of state-of-the-art convention space, brand-new casino, 45-holes of championship golf, two spas, indoor/outdoor pools, a bowling alley, indoor driving range, putting green and tennis courts as well as stables. Additional outdoor activities such as croquet, volleyball, skeet and trap shooting, mountain biking, bicycling and basketball are planned.

The resort will be complete with the opening of the Pete Dye Course at French Lick in 2008. Located on the rolling bluffs behind the historic French Lick Springs Hotel, the Pete Dye Course is being carved some 50 feet into the hillsides. Although Dye aims to make this a "walkable" course, golfers are sure to feel Dye's signature sting as they tee off from vista to vista on this championship level, 18-hole masterpiece.

French Lick Resort Casino was recently named as a finalist in The Great Indiana Getaway, presented by the Indiana Office of Tourism Development. In addition, the resort was also named an Americas Lodging Investment Summit (ALIS) Award finalist in the category of Development of the Year.

Golf Magazine ranked the Donald Ross course the No. 1 value among golf courses in Kentucky and Indiana, and The Zagat Survey's 2007/08 Guide to America's Top Golf Courses named French Lick as one of the top courses and gave it an "excellent rating." In addition, The Donald Ross Course was recently selected as a finalist for Golf Inc. magazine's 2007 Renovation of the Year competition.

More Details on Travelocity's Local Secrets, Big Finds for 2007 After querying millions of Travelocity members to find out about the favorite quintessential finds in their area, Travelocity's team of editors culled down more than 10,000 customer responses to unearth the best local spots in each state and is now sharing the third edition of Local Secrets, Big Finds with vacationers across the country. The list highlights 295 winners in the United States. More insider secrets from around the world will launch later this year.

Guests can call the Local Secrets, Big Finds Insider hotline at (877) 771-2007 to share their recent experiences at French Lick Resort Casino. To discover more hidden gems and leave comments about your local experiences, go to www.windowseat.travelocity.com.

About Travelocity

Travelocity® is committed to being the traveler's champion -- before, during and after the trip -- and provides the most comprehensive and pro-active guarantee in the industry -- see www.travelocity.com guarantee for details. This customer-driven focus, backed by 24/7 live phone support, great prices and powerful shopping technology has made Travelocity the sixth largest travel agency -- booking $10.1 billion in travel worldwide in 2006. Based in Southlake, Texas, Travelocity also owns and operates Travelocity Business® for corporate travelers, www.lastminute.com, a leader in European online travel and ZUJI, a leader in Asia-Pacific online travel. Travelocity is owned by Sabre Holdings Corporation, a world leader in travel commerce.

About IgoUgo

IgoUgo is one of the most popular online travel communities in the world. Its 350,000 members—all passionate travelers—share firsthand travel experiences, advice, and photos, with candid tips and inspiring stories covering more than 5,500 destinations. Site users can search by keyword to find reviews by like-minded travelers, as well as destination guides and helpful links. Members can easily contact one another to ask questions, exchange information, and build friendships without geographic bounds. In return for writing reviews, IgoUgo members accrue valuable points redeemable for gift certificates, frequent-flyer miles, and other rewards. IgoUgo has garnered top industry honors, including being named one of Forbes' "Best Travel Sites" in 2006, a Webby Award for "Best Travel Site in the U.S.," a "Top Travel Site" ranking from USA Today, and "Best Travel Community" and "Top Travel Site" commendations from Yahoo Internet Life.