Madrigal Dinner Performances

Medieval holiday traditions come to life as Floyd Central High School presents a madrigal celebration December 5 and 6 at the West Baden Springs National Historic Landmark.

In medieval tradition, madrigals were celebrations to usher in the holiday season with a feast and entertainment by court musicians, performers, magicians, jugglers, and songsters. Floyd Central's internationally recognized theatre and music department students will don period costume and Cockney accents to serve a holiday feast and entertain guests with a medieval madrigal from 7 to 9 p.m. on Friday, December 5th and Saturday, December 6th.

Guests will enjoy the mouth-watering menu of fruit and cheese plates, mixed salad greens, Beef Wellington and Poulet Lancelot, pecan rice pilaf, vegetables, flaming pudding, and hot spiced wassail, in the grand lobby of the former West Baden Springs Hotel. Chris Bundy, Director of Theatre Arts at Floyd Central High School and West Baden Springs volunteer, is director of the Madrigal Celebration.

For reservations call West Baden Springs, 812-936-4034. Tickets are $50 per person.
