

French Lick 2004 Summer Broadway Series Announces Season

(French Lick IN) Bob Trinkle, director/producer for the French Lick Summer Broadway Series, announced today the schedule for the 2004 summer season. This will mark the fourth season for the Theatre Company at French Lick with quality productions that have entertained thousands at the beautiful historic Hotel.

“Starting Memorial Day weekend”, Trinkle said, “we will present three shows each weekend. There will be two weekends when there will be no shows, that being June 4th and 5th and August 27th and 28th. The shows are as follows:

Friday Nights at 8:00 p.m. The Broadway Comedy Rumors by Neil Simon. This fast paced farce is loaded with laughs as a dinner party goes completely berserk.

Saturday Matinee 2:00 p.m. The Wizard of Oz...the timeless story of Dorothy, Toto and all of her friends in the Land of Oz, with all the songs we have grown to love...live on stage with adult cast... a must see for the entire family.

Saturday Nights at 8:00 p.m. Murder In The Grand Hotel...After over 150 performances this is the favorite at French Lick. A hilarious Murder Mystery where the audience becomes the detectives and a great prize awaits the winner. Like the game of CLUE, only with live actors...most of them!
